MAKE A DIFFERENCE to DECV STUDENTS

Do you:

Care about making a difference to DECV students?

Want great opportunities to build your confidence and develop your leadership skills in a supportive environment?

Want to ‘have a say’ about how DECV students engage with the school?

Enjoy being a DECV student and you want to tell others about Distance Education?

Apply NOW to be a “Student Voice Leader” at DECV. We would love to have your ideas.

This is what DECV teachers will do to help you in this role:

Social Awareness
Organisation of charity events/collections; helping out in local schools.

Student Welfare
We will help you to help other students if they need it.

Organisation
Maybe you have some good ideas to make DECV better for students – we will find ways to hear your voice!

Student Activities
Help us organise ways to involve other students in DECV activities.

Why should I put my name down to be a Student Voice Leader?

You will:

- develop important skills you can use now, and in later life – such as organisational and communication skills
- work within a team,
- be an important member of the DECV Student Voice team.
- be able to tell future employers and academic programs that you were part of the DECV Student Voice group.

Complete the simple application form to tell us you are interested – and we will do the rest!
